First Day of Course Resources

John Graves
jgravesedu.com

Below is the welcome message students see when they first login to the course.
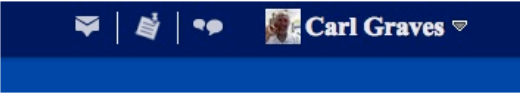

Welcome ▾

Welcome to the course.

To get started, do the following:

- New to D2L or need a refresher? View this podcast.
- Go to Content and read the Syllabus.
- While in Content, read the Week 1 Assignment.
- Familiarize yourself with the Help Pages resources. You'll want to make use of them.
- Complete the Scavenger Hunt and submit it to the Dropbox. Need help with the Dropbox? Read here.
- If you find any errors...broken links, etc...drop me a note and I'll get them fixed.

- Did you know you might have mail? Check out the Message Alerts envelope icon at the top right side of the menu bar. Choose Go To Email to see if YOU'VE GOT MAIL! It looks like this:

Please let me know if you have any questions. John
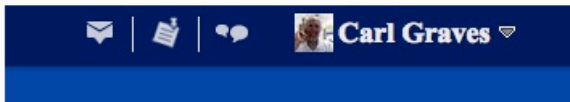

Below is the Scavenger Hunt

The purpose of this activity is to introduce you to the many resources and tools available on course through D2L. Please complete the following and save it as a word processor file and submit the file in the DropBox by Sunday, midnight.

Have fun!

1. From the Introductions on the Discussion page, who refers to me by my real name?
2. Where did you find the weekly assignments and the Help Pages?
3. What is my phone number and where did you find that information?
4. What is the grade range for an A?
5. What can you do to avoid a late penalty?
6. Where will you find your grades posted for the class?
7. Where did you find resources to guide your writing for the course?
8. Who is the author of the texts for the course?
9. What is the minimum time you are to spend on the My Inquiry Investigation?
10. Drop me a message on the D2L MAIL system telling me you have completed the Scavenger Hunt.

The Message Alerts envelope icon at the top right side of the menu bar. It looks like this:

Choose Go To Mail to send mail and read mail you have received.